Policy Title:	Procurement of Goods and Services	Initial Policy Approval Date:	April 26 th , 2021
		Last Review/Revision Date:
		Year of Next Review:	April 26 th , 2026

The Casselman Public Library Board recognizes the procurement of goods and services must be undertaken in a way that complies with all applicable legislative requirements and provides the best value for the library while balancing quality, cost and effective and efficient processes.

Section 1: Scope

This policy covers all procurement of all goods and services by the Casselman Public Library Board, the CEO and all employees of the Casselman Public Library on behalf of the Library including, but not limited to, the following:

- a) Goods – collections, collections processing supplies, computer hardware and software, furniture and equipment and office supplies
- b) Professional Services – financial, strategic planning, engineering, information technology, human resource management

Section 2: Definitions

“Best value” means the balance of quality, delivery precision and cost using a pre-determined evaluation plan.

“Bid” means an offer or submission received from a vendor in response to a request.

“Contract” means a binding agreement between at least two parties. In some cases, a “purchase order” is the contract.

“Supplier” means an individual or organization provides goods or services to the library such as a contractor, service organization, vendor or consultant.

Section 3: Assumptions and Guiding Principles

The Casselman Public Library will be led by these guiding principles:

- a) The Library will endeavour to procure goods and services from responsible suppliers who follow ethical standards.
- b) The Library will endeavour to procure goods and services while respecting the preservation of the natural environment and, where feasible, encourage suppliers to supply “green” products.
- c) Purchases will be made in compliance with all relevant statutes and regulations including, but not limited to, the Municipal Act, Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), and the Public Libraries Act.
- d) Procurement decisions will be made using an open, accountable, fair yet efficient process including creating a standard approach for conducting the process; communicating with bidders throughout the process; evaluating submissions; awarding the contract; and maintaining records of the procurement process.

Section 4: Accountability

The Casselman Public Library Board authorizes the CEO to act for the Casselman Public Library in the procurement of goods and services.

- i. The CEO is authorized to proceed with formal agreements and contracts on behalf of the Casselman Public Library.
- ii. The CEO is authorized to delegate authority for procurement, depending on the scope and value of a purchase or contract (see Appendix A).
- iii. The authority to proceed with procurement is subject to the availability of sufficient funds within the approved Casselman Public Library budget.
- iv. If a project exceeds, or is anticipated to exceed, the approved contingency threshold, then the Library Board must be notified to approve additional funds.

The Board gives authority to the CEO to establish procurement procedures required to enact the policy, for example, sourcing levels, approvals, etc.

Section 5: Conflict of Interest

A member of the Casselman Public Library Board or an employee of the Casselman Public Library must declare pecuniary interest in any proposal, contract, tender or quotation for the supply of goods and services to the Library, should he or she have direct or indirect interest in said work or project.

Section 6: Exclusions

This procurement policy includes the purchase of all goods and services for the library except for the following:

- i. Utilities such as water, hydro
- ii. Training and education such as conferences, registration, courses, and workshops
- iii. Refundable employee expenses such as travel, mileage, accommodation
- iv. General expenses such as licenses, postage
- v. Petty cash items less than $50
